Travers-Hill.

Charles Travers, Jr., received in Atlanta from Mrs. William Henry Travers, announcing the marriage of his daughter, Rebecca Beckwith, to Mr. Walter Clay Hill, on Wednesday, September 15, at Glenhurst, Cambridge, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill are touring the west and will be at home after November 20 at the Georgian Terrace.

Made-in-Atlanta Flowers.

The Free Kindergarten has opened with a full enrollment, many boys turned away for lack of space. The teachers are planning afternoon work with older sisters and brothers, and are entertaining for fathers and mothers. No one can deny that such little social centers are valuable assets to the city.

It costs money to run these kindergartens, therefore the flower sale at Kampers, which continues every Saturday until donations cease. Patronage is invited; prices are reasonable, and the flowers are lovely, home-grown—made in Atlanta.

Winners of Woman's Club Scholarships.

Miss Margaret Hatcher, daughter of Mr. L. H. Hatcher, 19 Brown place, has been awarded, over all applicants, the Atlanta Woman's Club scholarship in music given by Miss Ida Belle Jessup.

At East Lake.

The mid-week dinner-dance at the East Lake clubhouse Thursday night assembled the usual large company, and the scene on the gaily illuminated terrace was a picturesque one.

The usual Saturday evening tea and dinner-dance will be a popular event of the week-end.

Among those present were Misses Ardine Butler, Mary Murphy, Marie Dickins, Allie Peider, Ionaide Davis, Ida Whinn, Frances Connolly, Miss Perkins, Lydia Mack.

Said the Grocer.

There's Only One Thing Like It and That's MORE MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE

The grocer likes it because it's pure and clean. Five distinct cleaning operations make it so. He likes it because of its unequalled flavor, strength and aroma—because all of its superior qualities are retained in sealed, air-tight tins.

These things help his reputation—make satisfied customers. You'll like MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE for the same reasons—Try it today.

Why Spaghetti Should Be Served Offener as a Side Dish

A good many of our side dishes at dinner are served as spaghetti or minestrone, something simply to add a little more taste to the meal.

Now, Spaghetti has all the appetizing and reliable qualities of any side dish you can name, but it has a much more important one in that it is highly nutritious.

You can't break out in a rash when you eat spaghetti, and it is a healthful food. It is a good food to eat in large quantities.

RICH DEPOSITS OF POTASH FOUND ON PUTNAM FARM

Easton, Ga., September 17.—(Special.)—Rich mineral deposits on the farm of Roy D. Stubb, 4 miles from Easton, Ga., have been discovered. Specimens brought to Easton are declared so rich in potash that the supply may realize to some extent the scarcity caused by the war, which has prevented the importation of this necessary ingredient of fertilizers from Germany.

Mr. Stubb little dreamed of the rich value of his land until recently a party of geological surveyors passed through that section, making United States government surveys. A few weeks later the owner received a handsome offer for only a few acres of land and decided to investigate its value. Looking it over he found that it was rich in potash, and he decided to investigate its value. Looking it over he found that it was rich in potash, and he decided to investigate its value.
